How you can help

Volunteer Receptionists are needed during lunch each day, Tuesday - Thursday. If you have a friendly face, an hour to spare once a week, and can pass a background check, please contact susan@cliff temple.org.

Our Homebound Ministry serves members of our church who, due to physical or other limitations, are unable to attend regularly. Some are unable to leave home, some have caregivers, and some are at independent living or nursing facilities. Being a part of this gives you a chance to be an encourager and presents a great opportunity for you to be the hands and feet of Christ to others. It can be as simple as sending a note or a small gift or, better yet, making a phone call or stopping by for a visit once a month. The fellowship is life-changing for you and the person you are caring for. Please prayerfully consider taking this opportunity to serve. For more information about ministry to the homebound, contact Kenny@cliff temple.org.

Missions Class Volunteer: On Wednesday nights our children learn about missionaries who travel around the world teaching others about Jesus. Each month they learn about the different cultures of these countries including how they play, eat, and live. This volunteer supports the classroom by helping run one of the learning rotations each week. Contact emilie@cliff temple.org.

Mission Oak Cliff needs 250 hot dog buns and all the bottled water you can find for their Kick Off to Summer event on May 28. Contact ashley@cliff temple.org for more information.
